Koger's Korner

Spring Break is right around the corner, which means we're also nearing the end of the 3rd quarter. Students, you have one week left, so make sure you check your grades in Focus. If you have missing assignments, you still have time to get them completed and turned in before it's too late. Talk to your teachers and come up with a plan to get incomplete assignments finished and turned in by the end of next week (March 11). If you can't sign in to Focus, give the front desk a call and they can help get you set up. You'll breathe easier and rest better during Spring Break knowing you have everything taken care of here at school.

Book of the Week

This week's book of the week is... Ahimsa by Supriya Kelkar! In 1942, Anjali's mother joins Gandhi's resistance movement in India. This means some big changes for 10-year-old Anjali and her family's way of life, and Anjali must work to overcome her prejudices against some of India's lower classes, like the "untouchables." Despite her dedication to nonviolence, Anjali's mother goes to jail and Anjali must decide if she is going to take up her work.

2022 Opening Day Canceled

Major League Baseball announced Tuesday it's canceling the start of the upcoming regular season, which was scheduled to begin March 31st.

The announcement follows the breakdown of labor negotiations between owners and players, who've been locked out since the beginning of last December.

This is the first-time regular season games have been cancelled because of a work stoppage since the disastrous player's strike in the 1994-95 season.
